

Bright brains wanted at our location in Bremen for: Technology Transfer Ref. 2009105

Tasks

- _Assess business potential of outcomes from on-going research projects in the areas of multimedia content management and touristic information systems
- _Analyse markets, develop marketing plans and dissemination strategies
- _Draft business plans and implement them

Qualifications

- _Analytic skills, result-driven, taking initiatives, friendly, open-minded, self motivating, independent working
- _Very good knowledge of word-processing and spreadsheet tools
- _Minimum required: Fluent in German and English both in oral and writing
- _Technical background in Digital Media, Computer Science, Information Systems or similar
- _Previous experience desirable

Conditions

- _Remuneration according to experience and qualifications
- _Flexible working hours, also working remotely possible
- _When successful, potential take-up into a permanent position

Challenged? Contact us at +49-179-2286677 for more details or send your complete CV including a cover letter and copies of your certificates quoting "Ref 2009105" to hr@in-two.com.

IN2 is best-of-class provider of award-winning solutions and services to search, explore and experience multimedia content. Our focus is both on rich media content indexing and on content presentation. We support search -beyond metadata and descriptions- as well browsing and visualisation of large digital collections in more accessible ways so that users are able to find faster and easier the content they are looking for.