

Bright brains wanted!
For our location in Edinburgh we seek a:

Software Developer
Ref. 2011109

Tasks

- _Analyse user requirements, develop use cases and scenarios, derive system specifications, and design system architectures
- _Develop software and perform user tests for solutions in the areas of visual search, multimedia content management, information visualisation, and web-based content platforms

Qualifications

- _Proficient in JAVA, C/C++, C#, UML, understands SOAP, web services and Web 2.0, PHP and AJAX
- _Results-driven, team player, takes initiatives, friendly, open-minded, self motivated, independent worker
- _Minimum language requirements: Fluent in English both oral and written; good knowledge of German is a plus
- _Technical background in Digital Media, Computer Science, Information Systems, or similar
- _Previous experience desirable, but entry-level candidates are also encouraged to apply

Conditions

- _Remunerated based on experience and qualifications, plus bonuses based on exceptional work
- _Flexible working hours, with working remotely negotiable

Interested? Contact us for more details or send complete CV with cover letter and copies of certificates quoting “Ref 2011109” to hr@in-two.com.

IN2 is a best-of-class provider of award-winning solutions and services to search, explore and experience multimedia content. We transform content repositories into extended media asset management systems by applying advanced techniques for indexing rich media and by constructing flexible interfaces. Our application areas include management and publishing of cultural and creative content, organisation of learning resources into educational workflows, location-based services using multimedia, and presentation of accessible content.